THREE CONVENTIONS ARE HELD IN TEXAS

All Three Parties Select Delegates to as Many National Conventions.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
DALLAS, Tex., May 23.—Democratic, Republican and Progressive parties in Texas were holding their state conventions simultaneously today, each having, in addition to the routine of selecting delegates to their respective national conventions, other projects of more or less importance to themselves.

Interest was centered in the Democratic convention being held in San Antonio. Polling 250,000, or more than two-thirds of the state's votes, this party is dominating. The Democrats will elect, at the San Antonio convention:

A national committeeman.
Thirty-two district delegates to the national convention.
Eight delegates-at-large.

Four presidential electors also will be nominated then, their names to be placed on the Democratic primary ballot on July 22. Numerous questions of state interest, particularly discussion of Texas's new election laws, also were scheduled to come before the convention.

The Progressive party held its convention in Waco. This party will nominate four presidential electors and elect twenty-four delegates to the national convention, based on one for each of the sixteen congressional districts; and two for each United States senator and representative-at-large.

Republicans were holding their convention in Fort Worth, with practically the same business before them as the Progressives. They are to nominate four electors, and elect twenty-six delegates to the national convention, having two more than the Progressives.

Attempts to effect a fusion between the Progressives and Republicans, which have prevailed for the last two years, were brought to an end by the death early in April of Cecil A. Lyon, Progressive national committeeman from Texas. Several "get-together" meetings between Republican and Progressive leaders were held at various times but when the movement was reaching a climax, Mr. Lyon's illness halted proceedings.

Today's Democratic convention is the first of two; the second being held in August to officially canvass the returns in these elections, has, customarily, meant virtual election, on account of lack of opposition to the Democratic party.

It was generally predicted in political circles that the Texas delegation

CATARRH HAD EFFECTED EYES

Well Known Insurance Man Tells What Tanlac Did for His Catarrh.

HAVE YOU THIS TROUBLE?

"I'll tell you what it sure felt good to be relieved of that continual drip of mucus in my throat and constant expectorating," declared a well known insurance man of Wheeling, "and I've got to admit Tanlac is a wonderful remedy for catarrh. My eyes were affected by the catarrh, so the doctors informed me, but they are better now and my nostrils no longer trouble me. I gained a dandy appetite in the bargain, feel better in general and am practically well already," continued Mr. H. Poffen-barger, the popular Equitable Life insurance agent, 527 South Front St., Wheeling, W. Va.

Catarrhal affections of the mucous membrane, causes one not only unlimited annoyance, but with head stopped up, constant spitting, foul breath, bad taste in the mouth and other ailments such as weak eyes, etc., that invariably follow, the sufferer is sure to feel bad, lack energy, appetite and ambition to be up and doing.

For such complaints Tanlac has proven the "Master Medicine" it has been so often called. Thousands endorse it highly for troubles of this kind, and at one dollar per bottle, it is an efficient speedy and splendid preparation, economical and never keeps one a moment from work. It is essentially a home remedy and the name Tanlac is a household word in thousands of homes right here in this city and in a hundred other American cities where it has been introduced. Get a dollar bottle today at Farrell's Drug Store. Ask for the Tanlac representative, who will gladly explain more about this wonderful medicine. — Advertise-to the St. Louis convention would go instructed for the re-nomination of Woodrow Wilson. As yet there has been no public announcement as to who will be favored for the presidential nomination by either the Progressive or Republican parties in Texas.

TOLEDO MAN EXPECTED TO DIE

D. L. Bower, treasurer and manager of the New Overland Real Estate Exchange at Toledo, thought death was close upon him. He suffered from de-rangment of the stomach and digestive tract and his condition was highly discouraging.

He took Mayr's Wonderful Remedy.
Then he cheered up and went to eating. He had new interest in life.

J. W. Wood, Mr. Bower's partner, wrote:
"This remedy is surely one of the greatest medicines I ever heard of. My partner spent $2,000 with renowned doctors in trying to get relief. He gave himself until about the 20th of September to live. He has taken three doses of your remedy. Now he can eat and sleep without any distress."

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it.

WONDERFUL FOR THE AGED FOLKS IS NERV-WORTH

WORLD'S GREATEST NERVE
Tonic RESTORES HEALTH
TO 80-YEAR-OLD NANCY
UMSETTER.

Mr. W. F. Plate, of No. 900 Lubeck avenue, Parkersburg, has given the following important statement describing the benefits derived from Nerv-Worth by his mother-in-law, Mrs.
Nancy Umsetter, usually called "Granny Plate":

"Gentlemen:—I had stomach trouble, nervousness and was shaky.
Could hardly walk. Had to be assisted. Awake half the night. All run down and weak. Angry sores all over face.

"Have taken half bottle of Nerv-Worth and I'm strong. Can walk without assistance. My face is all well again and my general health much improved. I'm 88 years old and better in health than for years.
I think it is the best medicine I have ever taken.

(Signed) "NANCY UMSETTER." This testimonial was signed also by W. F. Plate, son-in-law of Mrs.
Umsetter, who is wholly familiar with the circumstances.

largest military hospitals is an indication of how far removed Bulgaria is from the European war. The Saloniki front has been quiet for weeks and the attack on Avlona is a matter concerning only the Austro-Hungarians. The Bulgarian army is resting on its arms. In a few days several other hospitals will be closed and that in charge of the Austro-Hungarian mission will be converted into an electro-therapeutic institute for the recovery of damaged limbs.

Nevertheless the Bulgarian government is calling to the colors the young men due to serve in the army. A great deal of reorganization is in progress, co-operation with the German and Austro-Hungarian troops having resulted in many a good lesson to the Bulgarian officers and general staff. Re-equipment has also been undertaken; to what extent is indicated by the fact that the acquisition of German and Austro-Hungarian motor trucks has enabled the Bulgarian government to furlough 60,000 army drivers and their ox teams and wagons. These men and animals are now back in their villages, tilling the soil for the spring sowing.

Bulgarian officers readily admit that they have learned a great deal from the Germans and Austro-Hungarians.
Not a few of them show it in appearance and bearing. Though always accepted as a good soldier, the Bulgarian has hardly had the opportunity to acquire the dash of his northern brothers-in-arms. At present, therefore, there is a general tendency to be as much like the German and Austrian as possible.
This has influenced the cut of the Bulgarian officer's uniform, and especially the shape of his cap, which formerly had a decided Russian tendency. Such German and Austrian greetings as "servus" and "Mahlzeit" are universally used and it is fashionable now to use the German "bitte"—please—instead of its French equivalent, formerly applied so much.

Relations between members of the three armies are the best, though in the main the Bulgarian officer takes more easily to the German officer, principally because the capacity for work and organization of the latter has virtually overpowered the Bulgarian. The Bulgarian is generally a cold, calculating individual with a very objective sort of mind, somewhat distrustful when it comes to defending his position, but ready for all that to take lessons to heart. This has caused him to look upon the German officer as a teacher of quality.

Saloniki is held by the Entente troops simply for the reason that an evacuation would mean more loss of prestige. Such is the opinion here.
The English and French have entrenched themselves well, but driving them back within the protection of the works defending the port would be a very easy matter, say Bulgarian officers. In political circles it is pointed out that Bulgaria is not interested in driving the Allies out of Saloniki, at least for the present. That phase of the Balkan war concerns but Greece, it is argued. Aspects would be different in case the allied troops set foot upon Macedonian soil.
